With Mr. Stamps as adviser, the Council held their meetings each Friday and arranged for the student activities to be held the following week.

Late in the year the Council sponsored a dance.

CLASS WILL

Being of sound mind and strong body, we, the graduating class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-six,, do hereby declare this our last will and testament.

First: To the faculty we will leave, to enable them to survive the up and coming senior class.

Second: To the juniors we will the "sacred" senior door and our financial status for May 29, 1956.

Third: To the sophomores we will our patience and intelligence when using psychology with the faculty.

Fourth: To the freshman we will our endurance, understanding, poise, graciousness, and gratitude with fond hopes that they will be able to possess these through their own initiative , when the year of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Nine rolls around.

Personally, we leave and will the following:

I, Alvin Birkholz, do hereby will my ability in woodworking to anyone who has the ability to use it.

I, Bud Bradley, do hereby will Grant Ford a pair of guns to get on his gunboats.

I, Vesta Brons, do hereby will my parking place at Del Mar to Mary Ann Black.

I, Blanche Byrd, do hereby will my half interest in the Green Mercury to Louise Nygaard so she won't have to leech a ride anymore.

I, Larry Campbell, will leave by the back door but I'll be back!

I, Kenneth Chamberlain, do hereby will everything I lost in the World Series to all good Yankee fans.

I, Neil Jay Chance, do hereby will my gratitude to the principal, the teachers, and friends who made my high school years so much fun.

I, Judy Gaither, do hereby will my long toes to Beanie Davis.

I, Anita Pearl Galusha, do hereby will all the good times I've had and all the friends I've made to the up and coming freshmen

I, Gus Garbers, do hereby will to Coach Taylor my class ring IF he is lucky enough to find it.

I, Bill Hamilton, do hereby will all my ability to keep out of trouble to Billy Lee.

I, Larry Hanlon, do hereby will my junior class play "oscar" to James Walker, who deserves it.

I, Kathy Herglund, do hereby will my swing to Merilyn Stait in hopes that she will be able to improve hers.

I, Derald Herrington, do hereby will my ability to be trusted to work in the candy booth to my dear brother, who can't even set foot in the door.

I, Carl Johanson, do hereby will my nickname "oyster" to Fritz Larson who is seaworthy enough to deserve it.

I, Carol Johanson, do hereby will my ability to keep my mouth shut to Judy Depping.

I, Janet Johnson, do hereby will my position as co-editor of the annual to Louise Nygaard.

I, Dick Kelly, do hereby willingly will the will that was willingly willed to me at willing time last year, to anyone who will willingly take it.

I, Monte Koski, do hereby will my little black Chev to anyone who needs to get away from W. H. S. when they are skipping school.

I, Gary Lenhard, do hereby will my dual pipes to anyone who can afford to pay for the tickets.

I, Barbara Ann Long, do hereby will all my good grades in English to Pauline Miller, who cannot even speak the language.

I, Lora Meldrum, do hereby will my ability to get along with the teachers to Laura Davis, she needs it.

I, Ginger Moore, do hereby will my position as a pepster to anyone who knows how to argue with our leader as well as I do.

I, Ann Petersen, do hereby will to Connie Beyers my pink dimpled knees that are unblemished and unscarred from our two years of skating.

I, Eino Ritola, do hereby will my ability to do nothing to that intelligent Robert Day.

I, Judy Bell Shultz, do hereby will my preference for one boy at a time to my little sister, Jennie Shultz.
I, Muriel Cleota Shultz, do hereby will my little "phalanges" to Patty Eward, who needs them.
I, Phil Stuart, do hereby will my back rear bumper guard to Harvey Stratton.
I, William David Stuller, do hereby will my ability to get by without shaving to Robert Day, who won't even touch a razor.
I, Marjorie Elizabeth Toppila, do hereby will my warts to a fellow wart-hog, Mary Ann Black.
I, Dorothy Darlene Wildgrube, do hereby will my quietness to Bonnie Davis in the hope that she will use it.
I, Larry Lee Womack, do hereby will my red hair to Pauline Miller although it isn't the shade of Red Eyes.
I, Paul Ehrlich, do hereby will my ability to beat up cars to Harvey Stratton.
I, Bob Butler, do hereby will my 1910 "Stutz Bearcat" to James Cameron.

PROPHECY

While I was riding on the train to the U-R-Crazy Mental Hospital, the train jolted to a sudden halt, throwing me against the ceiling and knocking me out. Evidently, it was a long time before I regained consciousness, because during the time that elapsed before I awakened, I had a vision of the activities of my classmates in 1956, ten years after their graduation from Warrenton High School.

Monte Koski and Dorothy Wildgrube have recently merged into business and are making a tidy sum operating the "You Stab 'Em, We Slab 'Em" Mortuary.

Anita Galusha is now employed in Little Rock, Arkansas, at the Bad Samaritan Hospital where she is chief head-basher.

Judy Shultz is fleeing from the French authorities as a result of her latest attempt to prove that she was the real Madame Curie.

Bill Hamilton has been elected the most inspirational basketball player of 1966, something about getting foul shots.

Larry Womack and Lora Meldrum tied the knot a few months ago and are now happily settled on Larry's "Cottonpicking" cotton plantation in Alabama.

Vesta Brons has married "Dogface" Eggleston and they are now raising little eggs, (Cheaper by the Dozen).

Bill Stuller has just graduated from the school of "How to Get Rich Without Working." To his dismay, he learned that the college wasn't accredited and he cannot take out a non-working license.

Eino Ritola recently graduated from OTI and now has his own mechanical garage in Astoria--"You Crash 'Em, We Mash 'Em"-- is his motto.

Katherine Herglund isemployed as a private secretary to Mr. Grass, the W. H. S. candy delivery man, and is doing quite well for herself.

Neil Chance, poor boy, was finally hooked by Janet Johnson through his own stupidity. He taught her how to use a fly rod.

Larry Hanlon is running for United States Senator of Oregon and has quite a few votes lined up for him as a result of his irresistible smile.

Carl and Carol Johanson have become internationally famous with their book, "How to be Twins and Still be as Stupid as Ordinary Mortals." It is really something, not a correctly spelled word in the book.

Muriel Shultz is trying to reorganize the "Harmonettes" for a debut in Hollywood, with the famous Cecil B. DeMille--as the six Marilyn Monroes.

Bud Bradley recently graduated from the Bible Center Institute in Eugene and is now minister of the First Church of the Open Bible in the Belgian Congo.

Alvin Birkholz is the head of "Al's Woodworking Center" where he teaches underprivileged children the craft of woodworking.

Gary Lenhard is working for the Warrenton Volunteer Fire Department, as Secretary. He records the events of Thursday Night practice.

Judy Gaither recently finished her modeling course and is now employed with Hanover Models of New York. She specializes with Frederick's of Hollywood Fashions.

Gus Garbers is playing football for UCLA and has been nominated for the Class Player award for scoring the other team's points.

I think I see Blanche Byrd and Larry Campbell married and living happily together, but the vision is not very clear and I cannot say for sure but Blanche looks as though she is twisting Larry's arm for a new car to match her slack suit.

Phil Stuart entered his little Red Bomb in the Stock Car Races and finished first in a field of one.

Barbara Long and Paul Ehrlich are happily married and are presently residing in the town of Desert where the population is almost three.

Ken Chamberlain has moved back to Guam. He claims that the girls are better looking over there.

Ann Petersen has entered that National Skating Contest and is currently practicing her skating at the Blue-C Skating Rink, the most famous one in the Northwest.

Bob Butler has just graduated from pre-Med school at Oregon State College and plans to enter Northwest Dentistry School next fall and go into business in the Drug Store building.

Derald Herrington owns his own dairy farm, and on the side supplies Warrenton with new practical jokes.

Marjorie Toppila has recently taken a stenographers' position with the famous attorney's, Slam, Slam, and Slam.

After I regained consciouness, I looked around me and I wasn't even on a train. I was in my fourth grade class teaching English as usual, and the principal, Dick Kelly, was pouring water on my head. It seems that one of my little angels had pulled the chair out from under me.

HISTORY

In the early part of September, 1952, fifty-three big, brave, fearless freshmen stormed through the halls of W. H. S.-big as you please-so we thought. We were the first class that did not have to have a big initiation. We soon learned, though, that even this did not make us as big and special as we thought we were, for we did not even rate a dance that year. Instead, we had a swimming and skating party in May for the whole freshmen class and we all had a wonderful time. One big triumph was that a freshman girl, Virginia Magnuson, was elected Queen of Hearts.

The Sophomore year was considerably better than our freshmen year. We were awarded the first dance of the year and it was a big success.

The Junior-Senior banquet and prom along with the class play was the highlight of our junior year. Our theme for the prom, "Three Coins in the Fountain," was very realistic, even to the flowing fountain in the center of the floor. "Beyond Reason" was the name of our successful class play, directed by Mrs. Shepherd. During the fall, we held the annual Homecoming Dance and our President had the pleasure of crowning Ann Davis, Queen and Darryl Bergerson, King.

Now--at last, we are the mighty seniors. Our Christmas Ball, "A Christmas Wonderland," was a beautiful dance and it was enjoyed by everyone who attended. During the spring we presented our class play and took a field trip to Salem. We are now ready to step forth from dear old W. H. S. to the unprotected world of mature adult people, which we have almost become. Our high school years have been well spent with much encouragement from the entire faculty and the big shove from our wonderful parents.

The junior class had a very successful year in 1956. Everyone had a good time at the Homecoming Dance on October 15, when Larry Hanlon and Barbara Long were crowned King and Queen of Homecoming. Their court included Princesses Blanche Byrd, Judy Gaither, Ginger Moore, and Carol Johanson and Princes Carl Johanson, Bill Hamilton, Dick Kelly, and Larry Womack.

Every Wednesday at noon hot dogs were sold in the halls to raise money for the prom.

A cooked food sales was held November first downtown.

One of the most "looked forward to" moments came on December 6, when word came out from the office that the class rings had arrived.

Performances of the very successful play, "Red-headed Royalty from Arkansas," were put on January 25 and 26. Jim Walker and Pauline Miller held the leads as Prince Michaels and Ethel Whalen with Grant Ford winning much acclaim as Fordice Green. The cast were very happy to have their director the dramatics coach, Miss Lois Payne.

The last semester the candy booth went from the senior hands to the very capable juniors who had it the rest of the year.

The climax of a wonderful year came in May when the juniors honored the senior class with the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

The Armistice Day Dance with the wind whistling through our ears and the electricity off, was a decided flop, but an earlier project had boosted our finances so that we led all other classes before us. With the help of your adviser, Mr. Taylor, you carried out many more successful enterprises.....what memories these.

Under the very capable direction of Mr. Robert Langen, the combined high school, grade school bands progressed very rapidly this year.

The band appeared for the first time in their new uniforms at the Winter Band Concert, which was presented two nights. The uniforms are blue and gray, with gold trim.

The Pep Band, working closely with the Pep Club and Pepsters played very peppily at nearly all the home games, and several away games.

A new addition to the band this year was the "Fife - Jug- and Bottle" Band which played novelty numbers on different occasions. Two other groups, a German Band and a Dance Band, are expected to be in full force next year.

All in all, we think the band was really great this year.

Wow! Look at those legs!

Under Coach Leon Taylor the Warriors had a very unusual season with one win and three losses and three ties.

They had the experience of playing in the sun, rain, and snow. Sometimes they won and sometimes they lost, but they never gave up.

Seven seniors are leaving but there are many experienced underclassmen coming up for the next season.

Those eight little gals are our newly formed Pepsters, and they are out there to give our team lots more support than they were getting before. They have worked and slaved toperfect new routines in time for the games. They really deserve recognition.

Dear Diane,

Well, we have been married for 6 years now.

It's been a long time since we were in the 6th grade & we had to write to me.

I remember way back when you were going with Lloyd & Edgar days. That was the good old days.

I hope that you remember those days when we went over to the Tarzan swing & the pool day that I fell in.

If you should go to Salem this year to pick beans you better write & let me know & I'll get passes & we can.

Don't get passes & we can.

I don't know what I would do if the Telephone didn't ring about 8:45 every night.

Be good

Your friend
